

José BRAGA

Economist with deep experience and knowledge in toll motorways operation. Vast involvement and direction concerning technological development, particularly in operation and control systems.

Active participation in the creation and implementation of the Via Verde system and also the Via Verde Portugal company.

Experience of more than 30 years activity in different fields of toll motorways operation: organization, planning, control and relationships with the grantor and providers.

He served as ASECAP President during the period 2016-2017. He is now ASECAP Past Immediate President for the period 2017-2018.